

Joel Baker, CIM, MBA

Chief Investment Officer

Joel has been a pioneering member of the IAIC team since 2000. As IAIC's CIO, Joel leads the organization in following a quality sector-based investment approach for all client portfolios.

After earning a Bachelor of Business Administration from Brock University in 1994 and an MBA from the University of Windsor in 1995, Joel then obtained his CIM designation. He began his career as a staff accountant with an IAIC member accounting firm, and during this time, specialized in the preparation of financial statements and corporate returns for investment companies.

During his time at IAIC, Joel has been an instrumental contributor to establishing, monitoring and adjusting IAIC's overall investment strategy. IAIC is a perfect complement to Joel's accounting background, education, and personal interest in finance.
