

Nicholas Leach, BA, CFA®

Portfolio Manager

Nicholas joined IAIC in 2021 as Portfolio Manager. His responsibilities include portfolio management, construction, and maintenance. Additionally, Nicholas is responsible for firm wide corporate bond investment analysis, security selection, and trading.

Nicholas is a CFA® charterholder and holds a degree in Economics from the University of Toronto.

Prior to IAIC, Nicholas spent 20 years as an analyst and portfolio manager of award-winning corporate bond mutual fund portfolios at two of Canada's largest banks. His focus was on the North American high-yield bond market where he applied a conservative, bottom-up value-oriented style. Nicholas brings expert knowledge of credit markets covering a broad range of companies, industries, and credit quality.
